10:43:06 From Kelly Vanek : Good Morning. I'm so glad that you could join us.

10:50:45 From Dr. Peter Zubritzky : Thanks. Can someone who didn't pre-register who is a museum member, join late?

10:51:34 From Dr. Peter Zubritzky : PS He is a Tucker contributor

10:52:13 From Ricardo Schiesser : We can see it, no problem.

10:54:33 From Kelly Vanek : Here is the link that can be shared:

10:55:12 From Ricardo Schiesser : Wow!! Nice model!

10:56:38 From Greg Kittle : Hello Everyone!

10:57:37 From Vicente Sevillano : Hello everyone from Spain

11:03:40 From Dr. Peter Zubritzky : Hello all from Harvey's Lake, PA in the Poconos! -4 degrees now.

11:04:24 From Kelly Vanek : Welcome everyone!

11:10:41 From Dr. Peter Zubritzky : Now seeing it

11:17:44 From ragtop : That motorcycle was not made prior to 1936

11:22:35 From Greg Kittle : Were all of the movie cars fiberglass replicas?

11:23:24 From Greg Kittle : Interesting Thank You

11:24:31 From Dr. Peter Zubritzky : Were bodies of Tuckers made of fiberglass? Just mockups?

11:36:55 From Tucker Viemeister : he also created the first flying saucer in dayton

11:37:41 From Joe : So we all know Tremulis, Offut and Kirby. Bennington was Rockelman. But who was Abe Karatz supposed to represent? Harry Toulmin? Or was Abe a real guy?

11:45:23 From Dr. Peter Zubritzky : The ultimate question I have is, did the Big Three kill the Tucker? And why?

11:58:06 From Joe : As I recall, Dunn wanted $10,000 for the load. Seems like a deal today.

12:16:51 From LaVerna Leipold : Peter Stolz, who was in charge of the set and props for the movie was a good friend of mine and he told me about the set and cars. He died this past fall.

12:27:51 From Roger Roslowski : Thank you for hosting this informative event!!

12:27:54 From Dr. Peter Zubritzky : Loved it. I enjoyed it so much! Thanks to all who organized and arranged it. Thanks.

12:28:12 From Ricardo Schiesser : Great Zoom meeting!! Thank you!

12:28:13 From Mike Brown LLC Ohio : I can't thank you all enough for this. Amazing to be able to connect with you all.

12:28:14 From Meredith Jaffe : excellent!

12:28:15 From Vicente Sevillano : Congratulations for this Zoom meeting about Preston Tucker. It has been a pleasure for me to watch it. Excellent presentation and lovely photos. Thanks again to AACA Museum to give me the opportunity to assist from Spain. Best regards.

12:28:21 From Greg Kittle : Thank You for doing this. I am an art teacher and want to share my love of the Tucker car and educate my students about his legacy. He is one of my personal American heroes and a true legend. Thank you!

12:28:25 From Tucker Viemeister : this was great!!

12:28:48 From kirby : Thank you to everyone who participated especially to Larry Clark.

12:28:51 From ragtop : I was able to visit the Dave Cammack collection and have him give a personal tour of everything for about 1/2 day.

12:28:53 From Tony Mazzola : thanks for mentioning Budd Steinhilber Read and Lippincott Team.

12:28:54 From Kirby Slear : Was there any relationship between Texaco and Tucker?

12:28:59 From Ricardo Schiesser : Plan to do another one, we loved it!

12:29:02 From Stuart.Blair : Thank you, this was enjoyable.

12:29:03 From Howard : enjoyed this. Thank you!

12:30:24 From john golias : I heard the tuckers had a overheating problem with the rear engine, any truth to that

12:30:26 From Dr. Peter Zubritzky : Did the Big Three Kill the Tucker? and Why?

12:30:37 From Meredith Jaffe : Other than press kits, Brooklin models, and the pewter model, are there other movie memorabilia?

12:30:40 From Edmonson : Excellent and thank you

12:32:33 From kirby : Sen Furguson worked to have the SEC investigate the Tucker car

12:33:29 From kirby : The FBI was investigating Tucker and communicating to DOJ

12:34:03 From kirby : J. Edgar Hoover was part of the investigation of Tucker

12:35:22 From Ricardo Schiesser : I would love to hear the story of what Preston Tucker did AFTER the Torpedo. I know that he tried to build cars in Brazil (the Tucker CARIOCA) but then he got sick. Is this something you would have interest in presenting?

12:35:32 From Greg Kittle : Could there have been any legal recourse such as defamation of character that Preston Tucker could have taken against the SEC after his not guilty verdict?

12:35:52 From Greg Kittle : I have also heard of and seen a concept of a Tucker Talisman car

12:36:44 From AACA Museum Inc. : Great comments folks, thank you! If any questions were not addressed or answered, please direct them to us here at the AACA Museum or the Tucker Club of America. Your emails about interest on the subject will be answered.

12:37:21 From Greg Kittle : Very interesting. Thank You. I have always wondered about that.I didn't know how that worked in a legal sense.

12:37:22 From AACA Museum Inc. : Today' Tucker Talk and the comments will all be available soon on the AACAMuseum.org website and out YouTube Channel.

12:37:41 From Joe Gagliardi : Outstanding presentation! Thank you for sharing.

12:38:20 From kirby : Dad worked to have the law changed to that the prosection was required to give all evidence and information to those who were defendants. He was in the College of Trial Lawyers and then on a committee of the SCOTUS and finally, this was changed

12:39:01 From kirby : by a ruling of SCOTUS

12:39:57 From kirby : It was a highlight of Dad,Äôs legal life

12:40:23 From kirby : Thank you Larry and all of you

12:41:18 From kirby : Bye Tucker People STay safe and get vaccinated
